About Advanced Leadership Programme

NHRDN conducted its 5th Advanced Leadership Programme – 2017 (ALP – 2017) from 27 October – 1 November, 2017 at Tokyo, Japan. The theme for the ALP was “Winning the Corporate Olympiad: Leadership Challenges”.

Padma Shri Dr Pritam Singh, CEO – Lead Centre & Noted Management Thinker was the Programme Director and Mr S Y Siddiqui, Chief Mentor - Maruti Suzuki India was the Advisor of this Programme.

Mr Bhagirathi Behera, First Secretary (Economic) – Embassy of India, Tokyo, Japan delivered the Welcome Address.

The ALP offered its major learning to a group of top managers from India through a combination of classroom lectures, small group discussions, case discussions, presentations and applicable exercises with World Class Faculty. In addition, participants got an opportunity to visit reputed companies including Japan Steel Works Ltd, Toshiba and Toyota Motor Corp and interacted with their top management team.

The ALP 2017 received a very good response and 20 delegates working in senior positions with reputed companies participated in the week long residential programme. The participating companies / institutions included BEML, BIMTECH, BSNL, ICICI Bank, INFOSYS, NLC INDIA LTD, NTPC LTD, ONGC and SHELL MRPL AVIATION FUELS AND SERVICES LTD.

NHRDN places on record its appreciation for Japanese Embassy in India, New Delhi and Indian Embassy in Tokyo, Japan for their immense and unparalleled guidance and continuation to make the NHRDN ALP 2017 a huge success. We deeply acknowledge the contribution of Respected Kazuhisa Yoshida San and his team from Japan Embassy in New Delhi for making things happen for NHRDN ALP 2017 and further strengthen the strong connect between the two Great Nations-Japan and India.
